

Someone said: "Here you can't die"

I'm visiting a wonderful place and if you want to discover the Affrancare secret to live longer and healthier I suggest you to come. You must know that Cilento is known for the longevity of his residents. Many centenarians walk in the streets. Ancel keys, an American scientist, set down in a little seaside village of Cilento for 28 years to study the Mediterranean diet. Something will change also in your diet if you discover Cilento! Come and visit it! Many greetings By.....
